Dear Pastors and praying friends,

Isaiah 25:1 — “O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee. I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.”

It is with a grateful heart that I write to you rejoicing in the wonderful works of our God.

As 2025 came to a close, six of my seven children were able to gather with me so that I could give each a personal, biblical blessing. Though one son was unable to leave his work in Pomerode, Santa Catarina, Brazil, he joined us by video and received his blessing. My earnest prayer is that each will faithfully fear the Lord and walk in His ways and that the future generations will rise up to follow Him faithfully.

In January, it was my joy to visit Charles and his family in beautiful Hawaii for a few days. What a blessing it was to see my son, his wife, and my granddaughters busy serving the Lord in several churches. Most of my grandchildren who are old enough, are faithfully involved in bus routes, singing, soul winning, and other ministries for our King. How that blesses my heart!

Hartselle Baptist Church allowed me to be a part of their missions emphasis month. They saw pictures of souls saved, baptized, and churches started because of their faithful prayers and financial support these past 40 years. I showed the life-size puppets they gave us years ago, which are still being used today in rest home and children’s ministries to share the gospel.

During ladies’ visitation, I was able to give the gospel to a widow named Kathy. Please pray for her understanding.

Attending the missions conference of a supporting church in Ardmore, Alabama, as my son-in-law and daughter were presenting their call to Brazil was a special blessing and a challenge to keep on keeping on! We only have one life to live. May we use it to bring the lost to Christ.

“When I survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of Glory died... love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all!”

May God continue to bless each of you for your faithful prayers and financial support on my behalf.

Grateful to be your missionary to Brazil,

Naomi Nichols
