

How Much Am I Worth?

Psalm 139

Interesting Note: Psalm 139 uses a figure of speech called merism by which contrasting parts describe a whole. David uses this to tell us there is nowhere we can go that God is not there.

Introduction:

Many see counselors and pay great sums to improve their self-image. You are not an evolutionary insignificance. Our view of self sets us up for success or defeat. God helps us define this the proper way!

Lesson: Value God's view of you over _____ other views.

1. God _____ all about you. Psalm 139:1-5

What you _____

What you _____

Where you _____

What you _____

What you _____

2. God is _____ to you. Psalm 139:6-12

3. God _____ you. Psalm 139:13-16

A special _____

A special _____

A special _____

4. God _____ of you. Psalm 139:17-18

Dig Deeper (Read, Study, Pray, and Share): Psalm 139:1-24; 17:8; Genesis 1:26-27