

Could One Book Change My Life?

Psalm 19

Interesting Note: Scientific observations have led several to turn from atheism to theism. Before Richard Dawkins and Christopher Hitchens criticized religious faith, Antony Flew (1923-2010) did, and he changed his mind.

Introduction: People continue to look for God, but it can be futile! (Proverbs 16:25) When you see that God reveals Himself, you discover that we can know Him beyond general revelation. He gave us the Bible, His Word, to lead us in all truth.

Lesson: Let the Bible reveal God to you.

1. God shows Himself in scenery. Psalm 19:1-6

He is _____. v. 1

He is _____. v. 2

He is _____. v. 3-6

2. God shows Himself in Scripture. Psalm 19:7-14

Six characteristics: perfect, sure, right, clean, true, and righteous.

It _____ our soul. v. 7a

It makes us _____. v. 7b

It rejoices our _____. v. 8a

It enlightens our _____. v. 8b

It endures into our _____. v. 9a

It brings us into _____ and righteousness. v. 9b

It gives us a new set of _____. v. 10

It shows us the _____ of warnings and rewards. v. 11

It displays our hearts and declares _____ for sin. v. 12

It unshackles from _____, preparing us for Heaven. v. 13

It frames our heart's _____. v. 14

Dig Deeper (Read, Study, Pray, and Share): Psalm 19; Romans 1:18-25; Job 38-41; Deuteronomy 4:15-24; Genesis 1:14-19; Exodus 20:1-17; John 7:17