

An Introduction to the Study of Biblical Miracles

Luke 1:37

Pastor Dennis Schaffer

I. BIBLICAL MIRACLES – D _____

- A. “A miracle is more than something _____ (though in ordinary speech we often call such events miracles). A true miracle is something _____ man’s intellectual or scientific _____ to accomplish.” --C.S. Lewis
- B. “A work wrought by _____ power for a divine purpose by means beyond the reach of _____.” --
Herbert Lockyer

II. BIBLICAL MIRACLES – D _____

What most students of Scripture refer to as miracles are, in the Bible, described by several different words:

- A. _____ – Matthew 10:1
- B. _____(s) – Acts 14:3
- C. _____(s) – Acts 2:19
- D. _____(s) – John 10:25

III. BIBLICAL MIRACLES – D _____

In God’s divine purpose in giving us His Word, He included the account of many miracles. The presence of miracles in God’s Word are designed to convey several important and foundational truths:

- A. To display God’s _____ – Genesis 1:1; Psalm 77:14; 106:8-12

- B. To declare Christ's _____ – John 2:11; 11:4; 20:30,31;21:25; Acts 2:22; 33,36
- C. To demonstrate man's _____(consider three examples):
- _____ – Mark 2:1-12
 - _____ – John 5:1-16
 - Physical _____ – Matthew 8:23-27
- D. To develop our _____ – John 4:47,48; 11:45; Hebrews 11:1,6,33-35,39
- E. To dispense spiritual _____ – John 1:17; Romans 10:17; 15:4; Galatians 3:1,2
- F. To denote apostolic _____ – Mark 16:20; II Corinthians 12:12
